Terms & Conditions

Elite EMS Education LLC

Effective Date: September 27, 2026
Last Updated: September 29, 2026

These Terms & Conditions ("Terms") govern your access to and use of eliteemsedu.com and the educational services, workshops, resources, materials, and other offerings provided by Elite EMS Education LLC ("Elite EMS Education," "Elite," "we," "us," or "our").

By accessing or using our website, registering for a workshop, purchasing a service, downloading or accessing an Elite EMS Education resource, or otherwise using our services, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these Terms.
If you do not agree to these Terms, please do not use our website or services.

1. About Elite EMS Education

Elite EMS Education LLC is an EMS education company that provides educational services and resources for EMS learners and professionals.

Current services may include live virtual NREMT examination preparation workshops and educational resources. Elite EMS Education may offer additional educational services or resources in the future. Service availability, format, content, schedule, and pricing may change over time.

2. Educational Purpose

Elite EMS Education provides educational and examination-preparation services intended to support learning and preparation.

Participation in an Elite EMS Education workshop does not replace an accredited EMS education program, required clinical or field education, certification requirements, continuing education requirements, medical direction, employer training, or any other education or training required by an applicable certifying, licensing, regulatory, educational, or employing organization.

Participants remain responsible for meeting all requirements applicable to their education, certification, licensure, employment, and professional practice.

3. No Guarantee of Examination or Professional Outcomes

Elite EMS Education does not guarantee that participation in a workshop, use of an educational resource, or use of any other service will result in:

- Passing the National Registry examination or any other examination
- Obtaining or maintaining certification or licensure
- Successful completion of an EMS education program
- Employment or advancement
- Improvement of any particular examination score
- Any other specific academic, certification, licensing, or professional outcome

Individual outcomes depend on many factors, including a participant's knowledge, preparation, study habits, educational background, examination performance, and circumstances outside Elite EMS Education's control.

4. National Registry and Third-Party Independence

Elite EMS Education LLC is an independent EMS education company.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, Elite EMS Education is not affiliated with, sponsored by, endorsed by, or acting on behalf of the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians (NREMT), Pearson VUE, or any other third-party certification, testing, educational, or regulatory organization. References to third-party organizations, examinations, certification levels, resources, or services are provided for educational or informational purposes.

National Registry examination requirements, policies, procedures, content specifications, testing procedures, and other information may change. Participants are responsible for reviewing and following current official information provided by the National Registry and applicable testing providers.

5. Workshop Registration

Registration is required to attend an Elite EMS Education workshop. When registering for a workshop, you must provide accurate and complete information.

Workshop registrations are subject to:

- Seat availability
- Applicable registration deadlines
- Payment requirements
- Workshop-specific requirements
- These Terms
- The Cancellation, Refund & Transfer Policy in effect at the time of registration

A registration is not complete until you have successfully submitted all required registration information and payment, and Elite EMS Education has confirmed it.

Workshop capacity may be limited. Registration may close when a workshop reaches capacity or at another time determined by Elite EMS Education.

6. Workshop Fees and Payment

Workshop prices will be displayed during registration or purchase.
Participants are responsible for reviewing the applicable price and registration information before completing a purchase.

You must complete payment using the payment methods available through our website or registration system.

By submitting a payment, you represent that you are authorized to use the selected payment method and authorize the applicable charges associated with your purchase.
Third-party payment service providers may process payments, and their applicable terms and policies may also apply.

7. Cancellations, Refunds, and Transfers

Our separate Cancellation, Refund & Transfer Policy governs workshop cancellations, refunds, transfers, no-shows, late arrivals, technical difficulties, and cancellations or rescheduling by Elite EMS Education.

By completing a workshop registration, participants acknowledge and agree to the Cancellation, Refund & Transfer Policy in effect at the time of purchase.

Participants are responsible for reviewing that policy before completing registration.

8. Virtual Workshop Requirements

Elite EMS Education may deliver workshops virtually.

Participants are responsible for having the technology reasonably necessary to participate, including:

- A compatible computer, tablet, or other appropriate device
- A reliable internet connection
- Access to the virtual platform used for the workshop
- Functional audio capabilities
- Any other technology identified in the workshop instructions

Participants are responsible for reviewing joining instructions and addressing reasonably foreseeable technology or access issues before the workshop begins.

Technical difficulties originating from a participant's device, internet connection, software, or other personal technology are addressed according to the applicable Cancellation, Refund & Transfer Policy.

9. Workshop Participation and Conduct

Elite EMS Education is committed to providing a professional and supportive learning environment.

Participants are expected to interact respectfully with the instructor and other participants.
Participants may not engage in conduct that:

- Harasses, threatens, abuses, or intentionally disrupts others
- Materially interferes with the workshop or learning environment
- Attempts to gain unauthorized access to workshop systems or materials
- Violates another participant's privacy
- Records, reproduces, distributes, or shares workshop content without authorization
- Violates applicable law or these Terms

Elite EMS Education reserves the right to remove a participant from a workshop when reasonably necessary to protect participants, the instructor, the learning environment, our materials, or our services.

Removal for participant misconduct may result in loss of access to the workshop without a refund where appropriate and permitted by applicable law.

10. Workshop Access and Sharing

A workshop registration is intended for the individual registered participant. Participants may not share workshop access links, login information, meeting credentials, or other access information with another person. Registrations may not be transferred between individuals except where expressly authorized by Elite EMS Education.

11. Recording of Workshops

Participants may not photograph, screen-record, audio-record, video-record, reproduce, livestream, or otherwise capture an Elite EMS Education workshop or workshop materials without prior written permission from Elite EMS Education.

If Elite EMS Education intends to record a workshop, it will inform participants as appropriate before or during the session.

Elite EMS Education will handle any recording in accordance with applicable law and relevant privacy practices.

12. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise stated, the original content and materials created by Elite EMS Education, including workshop presentations, handouts, worksheets, checklists, educational resources, graphics, branding, written content, and other original materials, are owned by or licensed to Elite EMS Education LLC and are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Purchasing a workshop or accessing an Elite EMS Education resource does not transfer ownership of our intellectual property.

Unless we expressly authorize otherwise in writing, Elite EMS Education materials are provided for the participant's personal, noncommercial educational use.

You may not:

- Copy or reproduce our materials for distribution
- Sell or resell our materials
- Upload our materials to another website, platform, course, file-sharing service, or repository
- Distribute our materials to students, coworkers, organizations, or other third parties
- Modify our materials and represent them as your own
- Use our materials to create or provide a competing commercial product, workshop, course, or service
- Remove copyright, trademark, attribution, or ownership notices
- Record or redistribute workshop instruction

Nothing in these Terms prevents lawful uses that cannot legally be restricted.

13. Website Use

You may use our website for lawful purposes consistent with these Terms.

You may not use our website to:

- Violate applicable law
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to our website, systems, accounts, or data
- Introduce malicious software, harmful code, or other disruptive technology
- Interfere with the operation or security of the website
- Misrepresent your identity when submitting information
- Use automated methods to improperly collect, scrape, copy, or extract website content
- Infringe the rights of Elite EMS Education or another person or organization
- Engage in fraudulent, deceptive, or abusive activity

We may restrict access to our website or services when reasonably necessary to protect our business, systems, users, intellectual property, or legal rights.

14. The Elite Library and Third-Party Resources

The Elite Library may provide links to educational resources, websites, platforms, organizations, or services operated by third parties. Unless specifically identified as an Elite EMS Education resource, third-party resources are created, owned, and maintained by their respective organizations. Including a third-party resource does not necessarily constitute affiliation, sponsorship, or endorsement by Elite EMS Education.

Elite EMS Education does not control and is not responsible for the availability, accuracy, pricing, privacy practices, security, content, policies, or operation of third-party websites or services. Third-party resources may change or become unavailable without notice. When you access a third-party website or service, you are responsible for reviewing and complying with that provider's applicable terms, policies, and practices.

15. Accuracy and Availability of Information

We make reasonable efforts to provide useful and accurate information through our website and educational services. However, EMS education, certification requirements, examination policies, clinical guidance, and third-party information may change over time. We do not represent that every piece of information available through our website or services will always be complete, current, or error-free.

When information relates to certification, examination requirements, clinical practice, licensure, or another regulated matter, users should consult the appropriate official or authoritative source.

16. Clinical and Medical Information

Educational content provided by Elite EMS Education is not intended to replace applicable protocols, medical direction, employer policies, clinical judgment, formal EMS education, or current authoritative clinical guidance.

EMS professionals and students are responsible for practicing within their authorized scope and following the laws, protocols, policies, medical direction, and standards applicable to their role and location. Nothing provided through Elite EMS Education should be interpreted as individualized medical advice or medical direction.

17. Service Availability and Changes

We may modify, update, suspend, discontinue, or change portions of our website, workshops, resources, or services when reasonably necessary. Workshop dates, times, instructors, platforms, or other operational details may occasionally need to change.

If Elite EMS Education cancels or reschedules a workshop, participant options will be handled under the applicable Cancellation, Refund & Transfer Policy.

We do not guarantee that the website or every service will be continuously available or free from interruptions, errors, or technical issues.

18. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the extent permitted by applicable law, our website, educational resources, and services are provided on an “as available” basis.

Elite EMS Education does not make warranties or representations regarding specific educational, examination, certification, licensing, employment, or professional outcomes.
Nothing in these Terms excludes warranties, rights, or protections that cannot lawfully be excluded.

19. Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Elite EMS Education LLC will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or similar damages arising from or related to the use of, or inability to use, our website, workshops, resources, or services.

Elite EMS Education is not responsible for losses resulting solely from circumstances outside our reasonable control, including participant technology failures, third-party service interruptions, changes to third-party certification or examination requirements, or a participant’s failure to follow applicable instructions.

Nothing in these Terms limits or excludes liability that cannot legally be limited or excluded.

20. Privacy

Your use of our website and services may involve collecting and processing personal information.

Please review our Privacy Policy for information regarding how Elite EMS Education collects, uses, stores, and shares personal information.

21. Additional Policies

Certain services, purchases, resources, or website features may be subject to additional policies, instructions, or terms. When additional terms apply, we will present them or make them reasonably available in connection with the applicable service.

If a service-specific policy conflicts with these general Terms, the more specific policy will apply to that service to the extent of the conflict, unless otherwise stated.

22. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms periodically to reflect changes to our website, services, business practices, or applicable requirements. When we make changes, we will post the revised Terms on our website and update the Last Updated date.

The version in effect at the time of a transaction will apply to that transaction unless otherwise required by law or expressly stated.

23. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is determined to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue in effect to the extent permitted by applicable law.

24. Entire Agreement

These Terms, together with any applicable policies or service-specific terms referenced herein, constitute the agreement between you and Elite EMS Education regarding your use of the applicable website or service, except where a separate written agreement applies.
